REPORT OF STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

(Commission on Student Fellowships)

During the past year, the Commission has had two active Fellowship units: one at Mount Olive College and one at East Carolina University in Greenville. Miss Hilda Owens has operated the one at Mount Olive as part of the campus life there. Therefore, the Commission has had no responsibility or expense in connection with this Fellowship. It is the feeling of the Commission that this Fellowship should continue to be operated in this manner.

The East Carolina University Fellowship has been under the direction of the Rev. F. B. Cherry. A service is held each Monday afternoon at 5:15 at the Student House, 612 East Tenth Street in Greenville. The program varies from having a minister speak to having a discussion by the students. Supper is served by some church at no cost to the students. However, an offering is taken at each meeting and placed in the student treasury. This money is used to do various projects that benefit the Fellowship by the students. At each session an offering is made to the Commission treasurer to help with the general financing.

In keeping with the rules of the University, no freshmen will be taken as resident students at the Fellowship. Free Will Baptist students will get the preference, and the places will be held open for them until 30 days before the beginning of each quarter. The price for rooms will be the same as that at the dormitories operated by the University.

The Commission has approved the budget following this report for the operation of the Student House for the year 1969-70. (See Budget for Operation of the East Carolina University Fellowship for the Church Year 1969-1970.)

We request that the State Convention support this work by giving the Commission $250 toward this budget.

We also recommend that the Rev. Floyd Cherry remain as director of the Fellowship.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. F. B. Cherry

REPORT OF MOUNT OLIVE COLLEGE

Greetings

The primary purpose of Mount Olive College is to provide a comprehensive program of Christian education for Free Will Baptists, and this report is designed to show the progress, services, needs, and future plans of the College in the fulfillment of this mission.

I. Progress

This past year was an outstanding period of progress as the following achievements will reveal.

1. Library. The $400,000 Moye Library, one of the most beautiful junior college libraries in America, was completed. The book collection was increased by 2,500 volumes, which brought the total collection to more than 18,000. Approximately $2,800 was received in memorial gifts in lieu of flowers at funerals and in honorary gifts. Mr. George Stevenson, former student of the Free Will Baptist Children's Home and Mount Olive College, joined the College staff as Assistant Librarian in order to help with the general administration of the library and to provide leadership in the development of the Free Will Baptist Historical Collection.

2. Dormitory for Men. Construction was begun on a $500,000 dormitory designed to accommodate 126 men. This project will be the first accommodations on the new campus planned for men and it will enable the College in the fall of 1970 to increase to approximately 320 the number of resident students it can accommodate in college-owned and leased facilities.

3. Financial Support. Gifts for the fiscal year which ended June 30 totaled $205,226 from the following sources:

Free Will Baptists
North Carolina	$122,079.31
Florida	1,015.00
Georgia	517.24
New Mexico	69.00
South Carolina	535.00
Total from Free Will Baptists		$124,215.55
Friends
Mount Olive College Area Foundation	$ 44,166.25
North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges	18,788,20
Others	18,056.38
Total from Friends		81,010.85
Total of All Gifts		$205,226.38

The College is deeply grateful for this support and we wish to express our sincere appreciation to all who made this record possible. The total operating budget of the College last year was $679,824.03, of which more than $90,000 was in student aid.

4. Student Life. Meeting the personal, academic, and religious needs of our students was given priority during 1968-69. The College sought to involve students in the full scope of campus life, including membership on faculty committtees, a representative to the College Board, and responsibility for a variety of disciplinary and administrative functions. At the same time, the College, in a letter to students prior to their arrival and to their parents, made clear its position regarding campus agitations and disturbances.

"The College will not tolerate any activity which infringes upon the rights of others or which threatens in any way the orderly operation of any phase of its program. We have not had problems of this type in the past and we do not anticipate any in the future, but we wish for it to be clearly understood that a student's right to attend Mount Olive College depends at all times upon his willingness to observe the polices and regulations of the College."

Through a series of off-campus retreats, on campus discussion groups, and open channels of communication Mount Olive College is seeking to develop a model program of student life for church-related junior colleges.

5. Religious Life. As a church-related college, Mount Olive seeks to assist each student in attaining his fullest potential as a child of God. Last year the Rev. Sheldon Howard, a former student of Mount Olive College and an ordained Free Will Baptist minister, was appointed campus minister, and under his administration steps have been taken to improve and strengthen the entire program of religious life. This phase of the College was thoroughly reviewed and evaluated and recommendations for changes were made at a religious life retreat held last February at the beautiful River Neuse Motel in Oriental. This facility was made available through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Fulcher, and was attended by representatives of the administration, faculty, board of directors, and student body. A follow-up retreat is planned in the spring of 1970.

6. Educational Program. Through an intensive Self-Study for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the College is evaluating its entire educational program including its purpose, curriculum, methods of teaching, counseling services, administrative organization, and financial structuie. Last year Mount Olive became one of 15 junior colleges in the three-state area to join the Regional Education Laboratory for the Carolinas and Virginia in working toward programs for the improvement of instruction. Mount Olive is also one of 23 two-year colleges in the Nation participating in the American Association of Junior Colleges program for Developing Institutions for faculty development.

7. Development Fund Campaign. The $600,000 mark in gifts and pledges has now been passed in our campaign to raise $1 million during 1968-71.

8. Assets of the College now total $2 million in buildings, land, endowments, other property and investments.

II. Services

1. Educational Services. During 1968-69 the College served a total of 429 students (377 during the academic year and 52 new students during the 1969 summer session).

2. Denominational Services last year included:

A. A night course on "The Free Will Baptist Church: Its History, Theology, and Polity" which was open to the public without charge!

B. The annual Ministers' Institute with an emphasis upon lay evangelism and missions.

C. An extension course in Kinston was taught last fall by Dr. Michael Pelt for Sunday school teachers, pastors, and other interested persons. Another course will begin September 23.

D. Study courses for woman's auxiliaries by various personnel of the College.

E. The annual Youth Conference for high school age students.

F. Pulpit supply services. (Churches which need speakers are invited to contact the Rev. Sheldon Howard who coordinates requests for these services. Both College personnel and ministerial students participate in this program.)

G. Library services. Interested persons are cordially invited to use the Moye Library, including the Free Will Baptist Historical Collection. (Requests for these services should be directed to Mr. Gary Barefoot, librarian.)

H. The College will be happy to offer any educational services to Free Will Baptists possible upon advanced request.

III. Needs and Plans fot the Future

1. Enrollment. The cooperation of churches in encouraging its students to attend Mount Olive College is urgently needed. We believe that no college can offer Free Will Baptists young people the educational advantages available at our own College. We ask that each church send us the names and addresses of its high school seniors and juniors in order that our director of admissions may visit or correspond with them. We encourage youth workers and pastors to bring high school students to the campus for a tour and to invite representatives from the College to visit your church.

The board of directors has approved an enrollment of 400 students for the fall of 1970 and with full cooperation of our churches this goal can be reached.

2. Financial Support for 1969-70. The board of directors has authorized an operating budget of $776,617. To meet this budget, gifts in the following amounts will be needed:

Free Will Baptists	$100,000
Mount Olive College Area Foundation	59,000
North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges	21,000

Friends and Other Foundations	51,761
Total Gifts Needed	$231,761

In addition to its operating budget, the College will seek to raise $125,000 for the Development and Construction Program on the new campus.

3. Campus Development. The new campus currently consist of approximately ninety acres, but additional property will be needed to assure the desired development of the College over a long period of time. It is anticipated that adjacent property will become available and when it does the College should be prepared to acquire it.

Future buildings which are urgently needed include a Cafeteria-Student Union, Physical Education Building, Chapel, Administration Building and an Auditorium-Fine Arts Building. These facilities are in various stages of planning and they represent ideal opportunities for memorials and Christian investments.

IV. Summary

The Board of Directors of Mount Olive College serves without pay or reimbursement for travel to meetings. The board contains dedicated men and women who work hard and who give generously that Free Will Baptists might have a college which will serve us adequately, bring honor to our denomination, and be our witness in higher education.

The College is also blessed with capable, loyal, and hardworking administrators, teachers, secretaries, and general personnel who believe in and support its Christian commitment.

The Free Will Baptist Church, our nation, and the world greatly need the kind of education Mount Olive College desires to provide, and with faith in God we give ourselves in joy to serve Him in this great ministry of Christian education.

Ralph A. Morris,
Chairman Board of Directors
W. Burkette Raper,
President Mount Olive College

REPORT OF THE MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

Our Midyear Spiritual Life Conference January 27, 28, 1969, was different. The meeting was begun with a banquet for the ministers and their wives. The YFA of the host church, the First Free Will Baptist Church, Kinston, North Carolina, served a fine meal. The executive committee tried to contact each minister of the state. It received invaluable information from the general secretary's office; however, some ministers could not be reached because of change of address.

After the fellowship hour, ministers and their wives met in the church for the evening program. The highlight of the program was the awarding of the Minister of the Year Award to the Rev. Willis W. Wilson, pastor of the Reedy Branch Free Will Baptist Church, Winterville, and president of the State Convention of Free Will Baptists of North Carolina.

There were no reports nor business transacted at this Spiritual Life Conference.

The annual Ministers' Conference was held at Cragmont Assembly, June 16-20. This conference was well attended. Several of our pastors were on the program to deliver sermons of their choice. We also had visiting brethren from the General Baptists, who also participated on the program. These brethren were from the midwest.

During the business meeting, the Rev. Bruce Barrow was elected president for the 1969-1970 term.

The Ministers' Institute was held at Mount Olive College August 4-8. The program was well-planned and well-received by the approximately fifty people who attended. The emphasis was placed on lay evangelism.

Respectfully submitted,
Melvin K. Everington,
PAST PRESIDENT
Adrian Grubbs, SECRETARY

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE CONVENTION OF FREE WILL BAPTIST LEAGUES TO THE STATE CONVENTION

The North Carolina State Convention of Free Will Baptist Leagues have held two statewide conventions since the last meeting of the State Convention. The Midyear Spiritual Life Convention was held December 7, 1968, at Stoney Creek Free Will Baptist Church, Goldsboro, North Carolina.

The State Convention of Leagues met March 8, 1969, at Everett's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church, Clayton, North Carolina.

The League again sponsored the Christian Cadets' Conference at Cragmont, June 25-28, under the capable direction of the Rev. Cedric D. Pierce Jr. For the third consecutive year, enrollment of the Christian Cadets' Conference exceeded all previous years.

Due to the apparent disinterest in our State League Program, the executive committee is formulating plans for a recommendation to the League

Convention to redevelop and reconstruct the entire State League Program, working in conjunction with other state programs.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Raymond E. Jones, PRESIDENT

MISSION BOARD REPORT

To the 1969 session of the North Carolina State Convention of Original Free Will Baptists:

GREETINGS:

We bring greetings to the State Convention in behalf of the missionaries we now have serving in the countries of Mexico, Rhodesia, and soon in the Philippines, and from your North Carolina State Mission Board.

It has been through your prayers and support that during this past year we have been able to accomplish many blessed things for our Lord. We have seen the Rev. and Mrs. Joe Barrow and Shelia reach the mission station at Rusitu, Rhodesia. We have seen the Rev. and Mrs. Harold Jones prepare themselves in school for work in the Philippines. They hope to depart on September 28, 1969, for the field. We have seen Miss Deborah Hines commit herself to God for service and is now enrolled in Mount Olive Junior College. We also have seen property purchased for a Bible Institute in Quemada, Texas. This is being used to train workers and pastors for the work in Mexico. It was also during this year we saw two missions organized into churches in our State Convention. These were Jackson Heights Free Will Baptist Church, Kinston, North Carolina, and Virginia Beach Free Will Baptist Church, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

I believe with the above facts before us, we realize more vividly the truth of Isaiah 55:11 "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." God will honor the preaching of His Word.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That each church and pastor be reminded that the real task of the church is soul winning.

2. That the North Carolina State Convention approve a budget of $75,000 for missions for the year 1969-1970.

REPORT OF CHURCH FINANCE ASSOCIATION, INC.

The Church Finance Association, Inc. has been serving Free Will Baptists of North Carolina since 1940. It is owned by and operated for Free Will Baptists.

We would like to express our appreciation to all who have supported our Association with their time, prayers, and funds. Our thanks go especially to those who have had vision and faith to make the Church Finance Association, Inc. what it is today.

Our Association has over $20,000 in memberships as of September 8, 1969; and over $165,000 in deposits. Our loans to churches and institutions now exceed $200,000. In 1968 our loans to churches amounted to $65,150. All of our accounts are in good standing.

Our needs are great. If we are to meet the needs of our church we must secure additional funds. We need to increase our deposits to the point where a large withdrawal will not retard our operation. As of now we could use an additional $120,000 in making loans to churches. The Association pays 5 percent interest on deposits of $500 or more; and 4 percent is paid on deposits of less than $500.

The State Convention has nine memberships ($225) in the Association. For information regarding memberships, deposits, and loans, write the Rev. Hubert Burress, Secretary-Treasurer, P. O. Box 326, Pinetops, North Carolina 27864.

"THEY ARE WHAT WE HELPED MAKE THEM"

The Report of the Superintendent of the Free Will Baptist Children's Home to the Board of Trustees

(Year ending June 30, 1969)

Introduction and History

The Free Will Baptist Children's Home has now passed its fifty-fourth year of activity. Since the first children were admitted, May 23, 1920, it has provided a little bit of home for the five hundred eighty-seven (587) children who have been welcomed into its care, as of June 30, 1969. Eighty-four of these are now in care at the Home and five others are being assisted in higher education,

While this Home now has a campus and other assets worth in excess of one million dollars, its greatest assets are found in the lives and services of the many noble men and women who were once boys and girls "in our care" and its greatest challenge, and opportunity, is the future of those who are now "in our care."

The commitment of this Home is ". . . That Life Shall Have Meaning. . ." for the children who look to us for their physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual needs.

Taking a Look at the Past Year

God has continued to bless our Home in many ways. During the illness and death of our former superintendent, Brother M. L. Johnson, the children have continued to feel a sense of security. Of course, there has been much apprehension on the part of all of us here at the Home. However, in spite of this, we are settled down to our work once more. We thank God for all these blessings.

In closing our books for the year ending June 30, 1969, we carried only one account payable that we could not pay. This account amounts to $6,635.73. The gifts for the month of July were down $4,998.49 over the same month last year. We again call upon you to come to our rescue by increasing your gifts immediately for the Home.

Religious Program

Brother Eugene Sumner begins September 1, 1969, as our assistant superintendent. Among his many duties, he will formulate and put into practice a religious educational program. He will also serve as our full-time pastor and counselor. In fact, he will be the director of campus life, in addition to assisting the superintendent with the overall program. The ladies of the Second Western District have continued their faithful work with our youth groups. We are deeply indebted to those persons. We have worship services every Sunday. We also have Sunday school and league every Sunday and vesper services on Wednesday evenings. Many of our children and staff visit other churches in the area also.

Health Program

We are very grateful for the very good health our children have enjoyed during the year. We have had very few cases of serious illness and in each case satisfactory recovery has been experienced.

We have continued to enjoyed the very faithful and unselfish services of Dr. Josephine E. Newell, general practitioner of Bailey and her staff; Dr. Zyba Massey, dentist of Zebulon; Dr. A. G. Inscoe, dentist of Spring Hope; the Nash County Health Department; the Carolina General Clinic and Wilson Memorial Hospital of Wilson; as well as others who have assisted them. We feel we owe a great debt of gratitude to those who, in service of love, have done so much for the health of our children.

Special Services

As we attempt "to meet the spiritual, physical, emotional, and intellectual needs of the children entrusted in our care," we are receiving more and more assistance from professional agencies within the state and area. In the past, we have been assisted by the Out-Patient Clinics of Duke Hospital and the North Carolina Memorial Hospital of Chapel Hill; Dr. S. F. Horne, dermatologist of Rocky Mount; the Nash-Edgecombe Mental Health Clinic; the North Carolina Commission for the Blind; the Speech Therapy Clinic sponsored by the Wilson County Easter Seals Fund; the Duke Endowment Child Care Consultant; the Crippled Children's Section of the State Board of Health; and the Health and Welfare Departments of several counties in the area. During tht past year the evaluation and consultant service of the Group Child Care Project of the Southeastern Child Care Association, and Dr. R. C. Whitehurst Jr., orthodontist of Wilson, have been added to the special services from which our children have benefited.

Farm Program

The farm was operated again this year by the Children's Home personnel, and the children, with Mr. Henry Mitchell serving as farm manager. Mr. Mitchell, the board, and the superintendent will be studying the farm very closely in the next few months in an effort to improve the farm income. It seems now that we can double our cattle operation and increase our hogs to a production level.

Our Staff of Workers

We continue to be blessed with the faithful services of an experienced and dedicated staff of workers. To them is due much credit for the success of this Home. We believe their faithfulness and dedication is unsurpassed anywhere within our denomination.

We are very encouraged by the increased interest some of our young and capable Free Will Baptists are showing in child care service as their Christian career. We believe our prayers that "the Lord of the Harvest will send forth laborers" is being answered. One of our own girls here in the Home is planning to enter college in order that she prepare herself for child care work. We are grateful for her dedication. It is hoped that she will return to the Home after she completes her training.

Education

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the interest taken in our children by the Nash County School System. The local school, the County Administration, and the County Board of Education are all being most helpful in considering and providing for the educational needs of our children. We are enjoying our new high school in the new Southern Nash High School in Nash County and the improved Primary and Elementary Middlesex School. We are also grateful for the many persons who are helping make it possible for us to increase our assistance to our students in higher education.

Membership

This Home is a member in good standing of the North Carolina Association of Child Caring Institutions, the Southeastern Child Care Association, and the Group Child Care Project sponsored by the Southern Association through the School of Social Work of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

A Look to the Future

We believe our Golden Anniversary Development Program, which was adopted in 1964, provides the goals, objectives, and plans of promotion necessary for our guidance during the next year. Our plans call for a vocational shop to be built this year in order that we complete our Golden Anniversary Development Program. You are encouraged to help us with this project.

Financial Report and Summary of Gifts

Included is a report of our receipts and disbursements and a summary of religious contributions received for the year.

Recommendations to the State Convention

1. We recommend that this Convention join with the board of trustees, administration, staff, and children in a few momments of silent meditation in memory of our former superintendent, Brother M. L. Johnson, who died, while being our superintendent, on February 11, 1969.

2. We recommend that this Convention express our appreciation to God for the opportunity of caring for all the children that have come under our care and that we express our appreciation by our continued loyalty to our Home.

3. We recommend that this Convention continue to designate November and May as Children's Home Months, and that the second Sunday in May continue to be designated as Children's Home Day.

4. We recommend that this Convention go on record as recognizing

May 23, 1970, as our Fiftieth Anniversary and encourage all of our people to visit the Home on Saturday, May 23, 1970, and Sunday, May 24, 1970, in celebration of this event.

Respectfully submitted,
Edward W. Miles,
SUPERINTENDENT AND TREASURER

REPORT OF THE STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

To the State Convention:

Since the last session of this general State Convention, your State Sunday School Convention has experienced some things encouraging, and a few that have been a bit disappointing.

On the encouraging side, we list the following:

1. During March and April of this year, we tried out successfully an experiment in Convention-sponsored, group-school crusades. For the experiment, we chose the three oldest Free Will Baptist churches: Gum Swamp, Little Creek, and Grimsley, in the Central Conference, and named the crusade, "The Pioneer Sunday School Crusade." At the end of a six-weeks' period, Gum Swamp was declared the winner of the "First Reward," and a plaque was presented to the school. All the superintendents expressed their belief that lasting good was experienced.

2. In April we had one of the most harmonious and interesting annual conventions of recent years. Eighty-three schools represented with delegates and/or reports. This was the best representation since the denominational division of 1961. The Convention featured demonstrations on better programs, better teaching, and better methods of absentee follow-up. The theme was "Plugging the Leaks."

3. During the winter and spring following your last meeting, five district conventions endorsed the "Cooperative Sunday School Program," which had been set up the year before; and their presidents were made members of the executive board.

4. During the year, the field secretary has promoted several workshops and institutes, with better attendance than usual.

5. Contacts have continued looking toward the organization of district conventions in areas of the state where we do not have such conventions, with considerable interest being manifested.

6. We sponsored two of the best youth conferences we have ever had at Cragmont Assembly—one in June and one in August.

On the disappointing side, there has been the failure of most of the district conventions to revise their constitutions to conform to the pattern set by the cooperative program. In most cases the reason given by district leaders has been the lack of people willing to assume responsibility for the new workers created by conformity to the program.

Looking to the future, the field secretary is making contacts at this time toward sponsoring at least three more "Crusades" of the type conducted in the three churches mentioned above. We are hoping that this will give encouragement to the Convention to launch a statewide crusade as a special project for our next convention year. The field work program of workshops, the distribution of promotional literature, the publication of "The Sunday School Reporter," and other scheduled activities will continue through the remaining months of this convention year.

We encourage the delegates to this Convention to go back home and encourage your Sunday school superintendents to work with and support your State Sunday School Convention with their presence and your financial help.

Jerry E. Rowe, President
L. E. Ballard, Field Secretary

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON SCOUTING

The Scouting program has been most rewarding this year. Perhaps the most progress has been made in enthusiasm for our God and Country Award program. However, there has been definite growth and progress made in all areas of Scouting.

We are offering some recommendations at the conclusion of this report which we hope will enable us to begin reporting the number of troops organized and the number of new scouts added each year. This should make our report more interesting as well as more informative.

The God and Country Workbook is at last in the hands of the Free Will Baptist Press for printing. We are extremely sorry that it was delayed but that the delay was best for the program as a whole. It should be available to all who need it in the near future.

As a result of the Convention establishing a Committee on Scouting the opportunity has been opened for our denomination to have a representative become a member of the "National Church Commission on Scouting." The outreach of Original Free Will Baptists in public relations can be strengthened through this relationship.

There are various workshops sponsored by the National Church Commission which are offered free to those who attend. There are training schools for Scout, in-camp, Chaplains. It would be nice if more of our ministers would participate in this important ministry. Information relative to these opportunities and services may be had by contacting your committee.

Several of our ministers have attended some of these workshops, training sessions, and have made outstanding contributions to the program in our connection. We ask that you in your churches assist in making the Scouting experience available to the many boys and girls who will surely be even greater leaders to take their places of responsibility in the world.

We therefore offer to this Convention the following recommendations:

1. That the Committee on Scouting be authorized to prepare a suitable report form which may be mailed to the church clerks together with the regular form for reporting to the Convention.
2. That the church clerks fill out the said form and return it with the regular report to the Convention secretary.
3. That the Commission on Scouting be authorized to become a member, by representation, of the National Church Commission on Scouting.

Submitted by your committee,
Carol B. Hansley, CHAIRMAN
James A. Evans
Herman Grubbs

REPORT OF OBITUARY COMMITTEE

Whereas, during the past year, God called from our midst the following ministers: Fred S. Powers, Cape Fear Conference; W. T. Reynolds, Albemarle Conference; M. L. Johnson, Western Conference; Elmo Harper, Eastern Conference; and numerous laymen;

Therefore, be it resolved that we express our gratitude for the years of service of these Christian servants by standing and singing Hymn 293, "Faith of Our Fathers," followed by a moment of silent prayer and concluded with an oral prayer by Brother David W. Hansley.

Respectfully submitted,
Henry Armstrong
Bruce Dudley

REPORT OF TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE

Inasmuch as we are living in perilous times when men are lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, and it seems that many of our brethren are being seduced by the evils of this time by such things as obscene movies, indecent wearing apparel, and the reading of indecent literature, this committee recommends the following:

1. That we as a denomination try to the best of our ability to live up to the standards set by our church covenant.

2. That our people spend less time with the affairs of this world and spend more time in family devotions and the winning of souls to Jesus Christ.

3. That our people make an honest effort to return to the faith which was once delivered to the saints.

Respectfully submitted,
James Lupton, CHAIRMAN
Paul Jenkins
Mac Wallace

Whereas, the officers of this Convention have performed their duties so efficiently; and

Whereas, the Children's Home has entertained this Convention so admirably well; and

Whereas, the 1969 session of the Convention has been one of inspiration and progress;

Therefore, be it resolved that we extend to each a standing vote of praise and appreciation.
